PASTOR GENE'S

NERVETONIC

An Invaluable Remedy.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Nov. '98.

I am 57 years of age now; since I was 16 years old I was a sufferer of epilepsy. In Germany I was treated by one of the best physicians for five years, without relief. I then came to America and here I tried many remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. I was so disappointed that I lost all hope of getting any relief, but I tried one more remedy. I bought a bottle of Pastor Gene's Nervetonic. I took it for a few days, and the effect was so marvelous that I was cured. I am now perfectly well and am able to do all my work. I am now convinced that there is a real remedy, which will cure all cases of epilepsy. In the month of January, 1899, I commenced to take Pastor Gene's

Nervetonic. I took it for a few days, and the effect was so marvelous that I was cured. I am now perfectly well and am able to do all my work. I am now convinced that there is a real remedy, which will cure all cases of epilepsy. In the month of January, 1899, I

MAYBE YOU'VE NOTICED.

I caught a string of beauties
 Up on the North Fork to-day
 The finest trout that ever was pulled out
 But the biggest one got away.

And down in the mill pond meadow,
 The boys that were making hay,
 With forks and rakes killed 400 snakes—
 But the biggest one got away!

And so I have heard of liars
 Since Ananias's day,
 There are just a few that receive their due—
 But the biggest one gets away!

The animals are all young, and are very fine specimens. They stood the voyage remarkably well, and felt extremely lively while being taken from the cars yesterday afternoon to the company's large barns on North bluff street.

—The Court Street church and Sunday school will enjoy an all day's picnic at Crystal Springs on Wednesday of this week. The steamer Billie Burr has been chartered for the occasion. It is the intention of the committee who have the arrangements in charge to make this one of the best picnics of the season. The boat will leave the dock in this city at 10 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. A picnic dinner will be served on the grounds. There will be amusements in the afternoon, and all who attend are insured a genuine good time.

—A little family scrap down on West-ers avenue this afternoon caused a report to circulate that a murder had been committed in Mortuary. A Gazette reporter hastened to the scene of the disturbance only to find a crowd of one hundred or more men, women and children congregated near the intersection of Linn street and Western avenue. Here a little quarrel had sprung up between the husband, wife and wife's father, all on account of money matters. In the scrap it appears that the old man came out second best, which caused the report to circulate that the old man had been murdered. Marshal Egan was on the ground and quiet was soon restored, with no visible signs of damage.

—Two of our well known young men attended church yesterday as well as young men should. On entering church they caught the eye of the obliging usher as they supposed, and undertook to follow him to a vacant seat. The imagined usher, who proved to be the leader of the choir, did not notice the gentlemen, and in a shorter time than it takes to tell, the two bashful young men found themselves at the foot of the stairs leading to that part of the rostrum occupied by the choir. By this time they discovered their mistake and to avoid suspicion took the seat directly in front of the organ. The gentlemen say that although they enjoyed the music and services very much, but they proposed to stay at home hereafter until they get sufficiently acquainted to distinguish between the usher and choirleader of that church.

—The gathering of Sunday school workers at Avon yesterday, the 26th inst., was an all-day affair. In the morning Mr. J. T. Wright gave an address to teachers on "Sowing and Reaping." The afternoon exercises were especially intended for the scholars, consisting of a general exercise in the lesson study for the day, and object teaching, from charcoal sketches, together with addresses by several superintendents, representing schools at Orford, Brodhead, Riverside and Avon. Mrs. Hawley's singing was a feature of the occasion; her rendition of some of the choice pieces of Sunday school music was very gratifying; young scholar granger said he would go ten miles to hear her sing "Bringing in the Sheaves." The Rock County Sunday School Association has never been so effective in its itinerant work, beside aiding and cheering many established schools, it has aided in organizing a goodly number.

IN REMOBIAN.

EDWARD S. HAYWARD.

The many friends of Mr. Edward S. Hayward were not surprised to learn of his death, which took place at his residence, 166 Linn street, fourth ward, at four o'clock this morning, as the doctors had for the past week given up all hopes of his recovery.

Mr. Hayward was born in Southbridge, Massachusetts, in the year 1840. He has been connected with the interests of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company for thirty-two years. When but a boy at Woodstock, Ill., he was employed as fireman for his father, who was an engineer on the road. From Woodstock Mr. Hayward went to Chicago as an apprentice in the railway shops. At this time he enlisted and spent one year in the United States army during the rebellion, and returned to Chicago where he remained a short time after he was sent to Janesville as superintendent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway shops. From here he was sent to Harvard, Illinois, and then to Oakbrook. He had been in Oakbrook but a short time when he returned to Janesville, since which time he has been master mechanic of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway shops, of this city, which position he has held for thirteen years with great credit to himself and profit to the railway company. Mr. Hayward was married twenty-five years ago to Miss Sarah M. Anderson of Chicago. He leaves four children, Maud, Blanch, Edith and Edward. Four sisters, one in San Francisco, California, and three in Chicago, Illinois. The three sisters from Chicago and his son, Edward, who is employed by the Northwestern Railway company at Iron River, Mich., are expected to arrive in the city this evening.

Mr. Hayward was always a very patriotic man and took a great interest in Grand Army matters. He was Post Commander of W. H. Sargeant Post G. A. R., of this city, for one year, resigning this position just before the election of Mr. J. B. Greene to that position.

Besides his relatives, Mr. Hayward had a host of friends in the city who will sincerely mourn his loss. He was always a kind neighbor, a public spirited citizen and will be greatly missed in the capacity of husband, father, neighbor, citizen and employer. He was keenly sensitive to the needs of those about him as not a few can testify. Mr. Hayward was also highly respected and esteemed as a valuable man in the capacity of master mechanic. He had made this his life work and in this his business interests were centered, not merely as a matter of business but rather as a matter of conscientious duty. The funeral services will be held from the house on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

MARGARET MORAN.

The funeral services of Mrs. Margaret Moran, mother of Mrs. D. Connehan, of this city, were held at St. Patrick's church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Father E. M. McGinnity officiating. There were a large number of relatives and friends present to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The services conducted by Father McGinnity were very imposing, at the conclusion of which the remains were conveyed to Mt. Olivet cemetery for interment.

DESTROY NOXIOUS WEEDS.

BY SO DOING YOU WILL SAVE TROUBLE AND COSTS.

Marshal Egan, who is also the weed commissioner for the city of Janesville, desires property owners and tenants to examine their premises and destroy all noxious weeds in accordance with law. He trusts this will be attended to without further notice. In case property owners neglect to destroy the weeds, the marshal will be compelled to make complaints, when trouble and costs will surely follow. The first and second sections of the law reads:

"Section 1. In like manner shall he or they also destroy any of the above mentioned weeds standing or growing as far as the center of the public highways, lanes or alleys adjoining the lands owned or controlled by him or them
